NEW HAVEN STILL LOWER. Stamford Wreck Pushes Stock Down Another Quarter of Point.

New York, June 13 .- The recent vio lent breaks in stocks and the equally swift recovery vesterday were followed today by slower and calmer trading, some further progress upwards. Final changes in most cases, however were small. The most urgent demands for short covering seemed to have been met yesterday and while there was a further retreat today by the bears, they were able to buy in their stocks A Poor Accommodation at better advantage. Investment buy-ing, which was a feature of yesterday's market, fell off considerably today. A few stocks, including Reading, Union roit Free Press.

Pacific, Amalgamated and Can, showed substantial gains at times, but the movement in general was narrow. New Haven, which was affected unfavorably by yesterday's wreck, was exceptionally weak, touching a new low figure at 89/1-4.

In spite of the slackening demand, sentiment was more cheerful than had been the case for a long time. Not only here but in London a better feeling prevailed. There was some buying here for London account. The unfaorable deductions drawn from the change of yesterday were reinforced by the events of today, particularly in the money market. Time rates were quotably easier and several of the leading banks were in the market as enders of 60 day and 90 day funds. although over-the-year money was still in scant supply. A spirit of cau-tion still prevailed, however, an1 speculative interest wished to ascertain, before making extensive commitments, whether a definite turn in monetary conditions had come. Forecasts of the bank statement indicated that another addition to cash would be shown. The known movements of currency for the week indicated a cash gain of $8,000,000 or $9,000,000.

The bond market was firm. Total sales, par value, $2,648,000.

Walsh, who pitched seven limitings for Chicago, was relieved by Russell when he began to weaken. The risitors bunched hits off Pierce in one inning, but throughout the game he pitched in fine form. Racon became unsteady and was replaced by Stack, who had the bases filled in Chicago's minth inning, and Allen took the mound and retired the side on strikeouts. The finish resulted from a base on balls and an error by Allen, who injured himself in attempting to field Eyers' bunt. He was carried to the clubbouse. A single followed off Curtis and Leach scored the winning run. Zimmerman argued with the umpire in regard to a decision at third base, and Manager Eyers ordered him to the clubbouse.
